Job Opportunity

Resource Centre & Outreach Support Worker

Role: Resource Centre & Outreach Support Worker

Pro rata salary: £15,736 per annum (equivalent to Kettering Mind Salary Scale Point 21)

Base location: Kettering Mind, Russell Street, Kettering

Part-time hours: 22.5 hours per week

About us

Kettering Mind is an independent registered charity affiliated to Mind, the national mental health charity. We are a values-led organisation committed to improving mental health and wellbeing across Kettering and surrounding areas. Everything we do is centred around the people and communities we support. Our focus is making a meaningful and lasting difference in people's lives.

We offer:

- Generous annual leave
- Mileage reimbursement for work related travel
- Workplace pension scheme with 5% employer contribution
- Fully funded DBS check and renewals
- Employee Assistance Programme (24/7 support)
- Ongoing training and development opportunities

The role

Kettering Mind is looking for a motivated and compassionate Resource Centre and Outreach Support Worker to support the delivery of community wellbeing projects, mental health awareness activities and outreach services across Kettering and the surrounding areas.

This is a varied, community-focused role involving partnership working, wellbeing education, community engagement and direct support for individuals experiencing mental health challenges.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Deliver wellbeing presentations, workshops and awareness sessions.
- Support community wellbeing projects, including the Community Wellbeing Champion Programme.
- Build relationships with schools, community groups and partner organisations.
- Represent Kettering Mind at events and community activities.
- Promote positive mental health and improve access to local support.
- Provide practical, emotional and wellbeing support to individuals.
- Support the delivery of Resource Centre activities and groups.

About you

- Experience supporting people with mental health or wellbeing needs.
- Excellent communication and relationship-building skills.
- Confidence delivering presentations or group sessions.
- A passion for community wellbeing and mental health.
- The ability to work independently and as part of a team.

Additional requirements:

- Full UK driving licence and access to a vehicle for work.
- An enhanced DBS check is required for this role with relevant Barred List Checks.

Working Hours

This is a part-time role working 22.5 hours per week (equivalent to three full days).

Hours will typically be worked across three days per week, although some flexibility is required and hours may occasionally be spread across additional days to meet service and project needs. Some evening and weekend working will be required to support community events, activities and meetings.

How to apply

To apply, please complete the application form available on our website: https://ketteringmind.org.uk/work-or-volunteer/

Closing date: Friday, 30 October 2026

Please note: we may close this vacancy early if we receive a high number of suitable applications.

For an informal discussion about the role, please call 01536 523 216 and speak to Justine Bradshaw. Completed applications should be returned to info@ketteringmind.org.uk

Equality & Inclusion

Kettering Mind is an equal opportunities employer and a signatory of the Mindful Employer Charter. We are committed to creating an inclusive workplace and welcome applications from people of all backgrounds. We are happy to make reasonable adjustments throughout the recruitment process to support applicants.

Please note: we are unable to offer sponsorship, applicants must have the right to work in the UK.